REFERENCES : (a) Our Letter Order No. RE-LO-37-64, dated 25 October 1963
(b) Our Letter Order No. RE-LO-37-64, Sub 1, dated 19 May 1964

1. Pursuant to your letter of 28 May 1964, we are herewith assigning a new obligation reference number RE-LO-101-64, to cover our requirement for a telephone cable at our new site in [REDACTED] [REDACTED] as requested in our Letter Order No. RE-LO-37-64, Sub 1.
This obligation reference number is cancelled. Our requirements remain as detailed in paragraph 2 of Letter Order No. RE-LO-37-64, Sub 1, with the exception that the assumed hookup date of 1 June 1964 will be advanced to later in the month.

2. The lease which we are requesting with the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] is to provide temporary, emergency service until the telephone company completes the installation of a new network of circuits and cables in the area which will provide us with permanent service. They expect to complete this network on or before 1 January 1965 and our lease for the emergency cable will terminate when the new service is available. Accordingly, there will be no need to fund the cost of the lease beyond 1 January 1963 and the balance of approximately $7000 of the original [REDACTED] site construction funds should be sufficient.
